Much of the information Hannah Coy presents is abusive as well as obviously false. Her allegations of name calling are made up as the website has never engaged in incivility. This information comes from a profile we did on the website of Coy, the house number she published online, full name and birthdates were blacked out. Coy later deleted her comments from the WWMT Facebook plugin so they no longer appeared on WWMT or Facebook.

Mr. [REDACTED], you sure have one heck on an opinion! I'm glad nobody really cares. You are not out for any type of truth. You are out to ruin a man and his family, friends or anyone who says; maybe this is not true. I'm telling you, there is more to the story. You need ot be a shamed of yourself! Leave this man and his family alone. You act like a person who is out for blood. Someone has made you mad and you want to destroy them. This needs to stop. The facts that you claim to have are far from true. If you were truly a reporter, you would know what you are talking about, sadly you are not a reporter. I feel for you, mental illness is noting to mess around with and you need help.

Answering people who sit in the back of cars filming so called recant videos instead of doing it through a legal process when their friend is facing charges.

Justice for Michael Terpening

Just want to let everyone to know that there is a very strange man who is stalking the Terpening family. Taking pictures, name calling, threatening, hacking in to FB and acting as if he is Michael Terpening by using Michael Terpening as his user name. The man is bragging that police can not stop him. As a friend of the Terpening Family, I advise you all to stay far away from him. It is sad that this family can not be left alone. He goes by the name of Guest Checks, [REDACTED], Mr Darling, but his real name is [REDACTED]. He is from Wyoming Michigan. Here is a picture of his house. Hannah, dear, you can get them from the court. They are public record. I guess you don't know transcripts are word for word court testimony from the Preliminary Hearing in September. This is the witnesses talking in court, nothing cut out. Maybe you try to pretend to be fair and go read what the people who worked for Mike said as well as what his victims said...Only 2 of the 5 victims even knew each other. Everyone is entitled to justice and you are not some giver of justice to decide what the truth is. We have juries doing that. Welcome to America, Hannah.

Hannah Coy I know the transcripts cost! I also know where they come from. What makes me laugh is I dont know how you could afford them on what you make. I was also under the impression there was a gag order on this case? Does this only apply to MT? What makes you so special? I see on your website that you are privy to information that with in minutes of hearings. Again, Special? You and your cult have way to much time on your hands.. I will be waiting for the questions to be answered. I wont hold my breath!

Really Hannah? What makes you think I am poor? Does that make it easier for you to attack me if you lower me down? The transcripts are public record and cannot be impounded. The gag order does not allow the parties to discuss the case, the court is not a party to the case. You can do down and read them for yourself at no cost at the court house. You can read the neglect petition and anything else in the court's file. Why does it matter, you don't want the truth out?

Hannah Coy I have scruples, I dont care how much you make. Im not hell bent on ruining a mans life by playing judge and jury. This situation is not for you to play god or head cult leader. all im saying is each page of the transcripts will cost money from the court. I noticed the number of pages on your site, and find it odd you would pay all that money? Why? If you dont mind me asking, how much did that set you back in your budget? Im happy to answer questions, puzzled why "this writer" can not? I guess when you become a veteran writer you will not have to hide questions, truths and reasons.

What did it cost Brian when Mike Terpening gave an interview and put his name on the internet actually calling one of his victims a sex offender? What did it cost the victims walking into court in September being called liars by Michael's family? And you call me cult leader, LOL, really? I publish the actual documents. What I say is backed up by facts and when mistakes are made I admit them. The Founding Fathers risked their very lives for this country to come into being by the treason of meeting in Philadelphia. Why is money your focus when felons are around troubled kids drunk? Really? The price I am willing to pay is nothing compared to what these kids go through. I am glad to share details like costs, but I want to hear a good reason why it is even an issue for you. Kids needed real help and they got the likes of Jamie Moore Bell, Mike Terpening and Jerry Bell and this is what you focus on?

Hannah Coy Again, divert and shield with " your facts" to not answer a question. The only interview Michael Terpening gave was about his son. No victim was ever called a liar at court. A former staff member was however called this. He admitted ( read your transcripts) to doing drugs while working with the young men from this program. He lied about it and then admitted to it. He was wrong but should not have been called a liar. I see you try hard to help but you do not have all the facts. Now, with that being said, Im done talking unless you can answer my questions.

I think you are mistaken, Hannah. Here is the link for the Village Thinker story, we did screen shots of what her attributed information to Mike. http://michaelterpening.com/laura\_adams.htm It was mentioned in court and this was on one of the TV stations that Michael outed the name of the victim. You can read our screen shots of her interview with Mike saying the victim abused a child in a pre-adoptive home. Even if the information is true, Mike violated the kid's right to privacy because that information came from a DHS file and it is confidential. As to calling a victim a liar, it was caught on TV, here is the link for the video. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QaRUF2KwXuw>

I understand it is hard to face facts. Personally, I have not gone as far as reading the transcripts. For me the focus is the abuse heaped on people online and in public since Terpening's arrest. Abuse is about power and control, and to get a feel for what may have happened one need only look around and see if people are trying to increase their power and control of the situation. The Terpening Followers have, without any objective question, been stunningly abusive to anyone who is not fully on their side.

I would like to continue our conversation and I appreciate your tone. So fair enough. The court clerk charges $5 for a name search and $1 per page for any document. Anyone can get the documents faxed or emailed. Where there are mistakes I would surely like to fix them, nothing is served by bad information. I have not condemned the man, I have pointed out lots of information that raises lots of questions. He has a hard road ahead of him and it is all uphill. I don't wish that on anyone. I did not say you are abusing anyone, Hannah. I think it is fair to say you did, though. As you will see above I said it costs $1 per page to get the documents from the court. They were ordered separately and I believe the final number exceeds 500 pages for everything.

Mike Terpening has never denied speaking with Laura Adams and she SPECIFICALLY says Mike is the source of the information she posted. This was important to me because she starts out talking about Jamie then she names Mike as the source of the information. Mike Terpening has, at no point, denied giving the interview. He has, at no point, denied being the source of what is confidential information, and if it is accurate where else could it have come from?

Tuesday at 12:33pm · Like

I think a little context helps. What happened was I criticized the Terpening Followers for posting names of victims on forums like MLIVE, WOOD and Youtube, The recent video names another victim by first, middle and last name. This is what Laura Adams did. Why not just use his first name? Why make it so the kid comes up on Google when you search his full name? The 700 plus comments on Youtube were pure abuse and the Followers began naming me and threatening to call my customers. I suggested it was not a good idea to be so abusive and they got worse. At the time the Justice for Mike T facebook was naming other victims, as was Mike on his facebook.....So the website came up and we began naming the Followers. When the MT.com site came up they started calling the Sheriff's Department. Through the Sheriff's Department and online on Youtube I offered not to use their names if they wouldn't name victims. I was mocked on Youtube for making the suggestion.

The vast majority of what's been removed from the web has come from the work of the team behind the website, much of it behind the scenes. I glad to see Mike and the Followers have stopped naming victims, but the fact is our team has made the costs of naming victims very high for Mike. At this point defeating their tactics works. Michael's sister was named on the Justice for Michael Terpening facebook page. We posted the image, but did not name her. Mike's mom has not been named on the site. The information you just gave about Jerry only adds to what I have. He was around the kids ALOT. He was drunk around the kids ALOT. DHS regulations would not allow him there, at all, because he is a felon with a violent history. What is out of context? If you have some facts, I am glad to look at them. The guy would have been smart not to start emailing people in the middle of the night, that is what led to identifying his search for a man. There is more I have not said about Jerry because I cannot get sources to back it up.

I know his involvement, Hannah. I do not hurt anyone I report information. I think people have a right to know what is going on down there in Assyria Township. As I pointed out to Mike's lawyers the only smart course of the Terpening Followers is unconditional surrender. Remove everything. Take down all the blogs. Take down the recant video (and stop lying about not having access to it, Solstice says Susan has the information). The fact is the Terpening Followers have driven the site. If they want any control over what we are doing the only serious choice they have is to stop feeding it. Why Mike allows this to go on is beyond any logic, it is not helping him; but it is far too late for compromise. The kids were outed, my parents were outed. Innocent people have been hurt. Make no mistake this is about defeating these people completely.

 I am always amazed at how Jamie outs people by name. She thinks she knows who is talking in the family. First of all, it was never a secret, so why put others out there? Second she is calling me a liar all the time so why does she even need to say who she thinks is making up the lies? If I am a liar i am a liar. If I actually have sources in the family then is the new position that Rob is honest and the source is a liar? I think if you read the progression of Jamie's own words in emails to me, it is hard to believe what she says. The issue started as one sentence that she then lied about online and repeatedly got called on her dishonesty leading the bigger questions about her children. The we find out the Jerry past and current history and the information fits. EVERYONE knows about Jerry Bell in the family. Why is it always about getting the source to shut up rather than being honest about what is being said or just not highlighting the information. It's like the massages, seriously, what was going through her head to actually confirm they went on? She has done this over and over and still has not figured out I am smart enough to expose the amazingly obvious dishonesty. Everyone in the family knows this stuff.

 The point about the family sources is clear, the more Jamie talked about it, the more clear it becomes the story is true. It started with saying Mike took her kids because he was playing CPS. As Jamie OVERREACTED she put out more and more information leading to fare more suspicion than the first story ever contemplated. She calls me a liar and then goes out of her way to out anyone? If I am a liar what is the point? If it is a fabrication she helps confirm the story by suggesting their is another person giving me information and she cannot ever call me a liar because she is saying my sources are real? It simply does not work and how sad more people have to be brought into this. Jamie married a first class monster who was on probation for assault with a deadly weapon who has been drunk for years. He is still drunk. He was around the kids and he is searching for men while he is married and she has to call the cops because he is out of control? Does this woman have any friends who say GET OUT? I admire you put your name out there, the victims in this case should be and are protected by the media. They have been viciously attacked by the Followers in public. I am providing links where you can see their stuff in their own words in screen shots. How do you explain Mike accusing me of being in a sex ring? It is entirely laughable, yet there he is in his own words doing it. This is a leader in child welfare? 5 different victims, only two know each other. And the recant was Rodney setting these people up. It does not get into court and when he is on the stand we know he LED the cops to DNA. It is not out, YET, but if Rodney led people to Mike's DNA that recant becomes an obvious game played on 3 women sitting in a car doing something really foolish. How in the world could he have known that? The man has a tough case with no real defense other than to trash people and call the state corrupt.

You know, Hannah, that is not fair. First of all the adults in this case have not been honest and we can start with Mike talking about me and a sex ring. I adopted my son from foster care and he had been in some of the very same places. That is a cheap shot. What it takes to tell horror stories of abuse to all the people it takes to bring criminal charges is not something many people do for fun. What is the story on their side? It is to call people names and attack them. The Followers do that just fine without my help.

Hannah, if you check out the transcripts you will see only two of the victims knew each other. It is also in the court filings I've posted online about Rodney leading the state police to DNA. If Mike Terpening is the predator he is accused of being the last thing any child needs is to be around Mike. I am sorry, I have plenty of experience, education and training and have not declared the man innocent. All the contortions you are doing to declare innocence is not fair. The fact is there Mike was charged in 2003 in another case. There are at least 2 more victims, one who refused to testify and one where the statute of limitations does not allow prosecution, but these issues can come into the family court case. Then there is the son. The 12 year old has some 30 kids reporting his acting out. Sex offending is a learned behavior, it is not something a developmentally disabled 12 year old naturally begins. The fact is Mike has a lot to overcome. Is Rodney a good witness? No. We have juries to sort that issue out. Getting what from whom? A place to live? Why in the world are you people so opposed to just letting a jury hear this case? The man has great lawyers. When do people like you stand up and tell your friend his Followers are hurting him. The man faces life in prison and hangs out with kids, a witness and Jamie at a St Patrick's Day party? Really? Nothing wrong with that? It just violates the court's order is all? I am not angry, the truth is winning. The nonsense is being exposed. There is nothing to be angry about. It is just sad people are always looking to diminish or hurt someone in a vain effort to have this case tossed. It's going to trial and there will be one issue on the agenda, did Michael Terpening abuse these kids.

While Coy is not bound by the gag order in two of Terpening's three criminal cases, she does question our website's publishing information pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act under what appears to be furthering the Terpening Followers position the michaelterpening.com website is in cahoots with the prosecution, a position possibly held by the defense as the owner of the website was subpoenaed to testify in the case.

I have known Michael for 18 years. I know a lot of things about him but what Barry County is saying is not anything that is true. The entire situation is horrible! They are painting him and his family to be wild monsters! The more i hear the more i believe that Barry County is in an uncontrolled rampage to destroy him and his family. I hope the prosecution is held accountable for what they have done. We will see you in court Barry County with mountain of supporters.

Hannah Coy Yes, you do [REDACTED]! Just know that you also could get caught up in what is free speech and what is slander.. Much of what your saying is just that. Im not going to talk to you any more. Your facts are wrong and your site is a joke. I guess thats what I would expect from someone who sits on the computer all day. Some how I think this gives you an empowering feeling. Was your dad a crooked police officer before he retired? What did W [REDACTED] do? You need help before you hurt yourself or others. Also do think anyone is buying the fact you have worked with countless victims! If anything you made them victims with this type of behavior! Take care of your self [REDACTED]! On 11, [REDACTED] I hope you get flowers for you Birthday! That will make you 45 right? A big boy!

Guest Checks I have to disagree. Checked with the my lawyer when I started this, and checked in as the Followers began calling the Sheriff's Department. First of all, opinion is free speech. You cannot, "slander" or, "libel" someone for expressing your opinion, it's yours and you can have it free from legal harassment. Second, the website primarily asks questions where the facts are lacking. I keep putting the challenge out to tell me where facts are wrong and the challenge is not answered. Finally, I doubt any fair person reads what you are doing by putting out such personal information as anything other than intending to harass. Harassing people into silence won't work with me, I don't accept delivery of the abuse. Still, this is what elected officials do? Come on, if you cannot challenge the facts, why not come back with great stories of the guy? Isn't this the win in the public relations campaign? I am in this because people went out and put the names of victims in the media. Whether those kids are telling the truth or not does not matter, what does matter is the next victim sees what can happen to her and she may not talk. As a citizen I want this resolved in our courts. These issues are hard enough to figure out without the malevolence we've seen from Mr. Terpening and the Followers...
